

Get paid to earn valuable research experience!

Basic Energy Sciences Reaching a New Energy Workforce BES-RENEW

Interns will work with scientists at the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory (PNNL) in Richland, Washington for a 10-week period of hands-on experiential training and independent investigation in the areas of electro-chemistry and computational chemistry.

Deadline to Apply
December 15, 2024

Program Dates
Summer 2025

Benefits
Stipend $6,500 +

Interns will also participate in the PNNL Gold Experience, a prestigious intern development experience designed to provide students with strategic professional development and networking opportunities to elevate their future STEM career. UOG undergraduate and graduate students in STEM fields are eligible to apply.

For information: Dr. John F.K. Limtiaco | limtiacoj6850@triton.uog.edu

